Postal Regulatory Commission,

As a person who is served by the Chilo, Ohio post office, I am appealing your decision to close our Post Office.

While I fully understand the need to cut expenses and tighten the "proverbial belt", I suggest you cut salaries of top and executive management. Those folks—you included—are receiving salaries and benefits in excess of what you find in the private sector. Throwing the little post offices under the bus is not the answer.

Sincerely yours,

Daniel T. Burke
